

To Our Parents:

Each semester, between 20 and 30 Rhodes students are forced to withdraw from the College mid-semester because of unforeseen illness or injury. Due to this, the College is pleased to once again endorse the Tuition Refund Plan (TRP). This plan, offered and administered by A.W.G. Dewar of Quincy, Massachusetts, helps protect your educational investment. When combined with the College's published refund policy, reimbursement totaling 80% of tuition, activity fee, room, and board charges billed by the College will be made if your son/daughter is forced to withdraw from school due to a personal illness, accident, or mental health condition. This Plan significantly extends and enhances the College's published refund policy. You are assured of up to an 80% refund throughout the term even after the College's own refund policy has expired. This is especially beneficial when the student is forced to withdraw and then return for a later term since Rhodes' financial aid is only awarded for 8 se
